Ben Schwab

TAX MANAGER

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Ben has 20 years of public accounting experience. He serves the firm as a tax and business advisor for small and middle-market businesses, as well as high net worth individuals, specializing in the agriculture industry. Ben has significant tax and consulting experience with mid to large sized row crop farming operations throughout the Midwest. Ben is a life-long resident of Litchfield, Illinois, having grown up on his family's 1,500 acre grain farm.

Ben graduated from Greenville University in 2002 where he was a Presidential Scholar, receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting.

Ben is a knowledgeable resource in the areas of tax planning and compliance for high net worth individuals and closely held entities and their owners. Ben has experience in the planning and return filing issues associated with small businesses and their owners, including corporation, trust, partnership and individual tax returns. He has been involved in engagements that include generational transfers and has experience with like-kind exchanges and cost segregation studies. Ben has been involved in numerous new entity formation projects and has experience in consolidated tax returns and multi-state tax issues. He also has experience in building long-term financial plans and is knowledgeable in the area of compiled and reviewed financial statement attestation engagements.
