Jereme Zook CPA

TAX PARTNER

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Jereme has many years of experience serving clients as a tax and business planner for small to middle market businesses and high net worth individuals. His planning skills include experience in new business formation as well as business growth and consolidation. Jereme also has solid experience with the issues of family business succession planning and works closely with family farms where planned generational transfers of business ownership and control are taking place. He has devoted attention to the agribusiness industry, especially focusing on current issues and opportunities associated with production agriculture.

Jereme graduated with honors in 2001 from Greenville University where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting with a minor in Management Information Systems. He then obtained his CPA certification and Illinois license as a CPA in 2002.

Jereme is skilled in managing client engagements associated with business formation including owner equity and debt needs, cash flow planning, initial asset acquisition and depreciation implications, and the choices of entity for new owners. He has experience working with farm operations desiring to combine businesses through a partnership or similar entity. Jereme also oversees compilation and review engagements to provide financial reporting to farm operations and other small businesses, assisting business owners and creditors in understanding their financial position. He is experienced in management and review of tax planning, consulting, and compliance engagements associated with both new and existing corporations, trusts, partnerships and individuals.
